FALL'M'LEAN RELATIONS UP AGAIN TODAY

Committee Seeks to Develop
Whether Administrations
Had Any Communications With Fall or Others Involved In Oil Scandal.

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The Senate Oil Committee opened another day of hearings today when it resumed its investigation of the oil scandal. Taking up the trial of the $100,000 loan made to A. B. Fall by Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post, the committee was told by officials of two Washington banks that Mr. McLean's checking balance in neither of them was more than $10,000 in December, 1921. The publisher has informed the committee he gave Fall checks aggregating $100,000 on the two banks during that period but that they were returned un cashed.

DEMANDS THAT WHEELER BE CALLED TO STAND

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—At the re-opening of the oil committee public hearing today, Chairman Lenroot read into the record a letter from E. B. Doherty demanding that Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, be called to testify as to his statements on the floor of the Senate that Attorney-General Daugherty was a friend of Doherty.

Charles B. Lydane, vice-president of the Federal-American, called as the first witness, bringing with him deposit accounts of Edward B. McLean during the late months of 1921.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, took the records. He showed deposit accounts of Edward B. McLean during November and December, the Senator commented, and also figures for earlier months, and others for August, 1922. The balance in the account on November 16, 1921, the Senator said was $2,022.40.

"Give us the balance from October 1, 1921," he directed. Mr. Lydane read figures showing the accounts to have been $22,301 in October, 1921. It ran up and down, becoming stationary at $2,022.40 in November and remaining at that level until August, 1922.

"Would you have honored his check for $50,000 on that balance," Senator Walsh asked.

"We would have called him and asked him if he desired to arrange for its payment," Mr. Lydane said.

"Did you learn of a check for $50,000 drawn on your bank by Mr. McLean against this $2,022.40 balance," Senator Walsh asked. "I never did."

The witness replied, and was excused.

James H. Eaden, vice-president and cashier of the Commercial National Bank of Washington, presented records of Mr. McLean's personal account in that bank.

He showed the account for October and November, 1921.

Actress to Ask Clemency For Herman Roth

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Feb. 25.—When Herman L. Roth, Hollywood attorney, convicted of kidnapping a girl, was released from prison, he was given a $50,000 bond by Arthur H. Sawyer, business manager for Barbara L. Marr, motion picture actress, appears in superior court for sentence today. Miss L. Marr will be there to ask clemency for him, according to the Los Angeles Examiner.

"Mr. Roth is a very sick man," the Examiner quotes Miss L. Marr as saying. "I'm fully convinced that if he goes to jail it will mean his death. I can't bear to carry the thought in my soul that I sent a man to his death, and I am going into prison, possibly to die, for his sake."

Witnesses at Roth's trial testified he had threatened to file an amended divorce complaint against Miss L. Marr, naming several prominent film players as co-respondents. Roth was ordered to drop the matter or it would be paid for his silence.

The men returned to Danville on Saturday after marking the road from Petersburg to that section of the road, already marked. A distance of 281 miles was covered and tourists coming south from Washington will find the name of this city repeated with startling clarity as they wind their way south. The work done is consid-

TOWN TOPICS

The condition of Frank Talbott, who has been slightly indisposed for the past few days, was reported today as considerably improved. About three days ago Mr. Talbott developed an attack of hiccoughs which continued for two days almost without respite. On Sunday, Mr. Talbott took treatment and the irritation was overcome, there being no development of the disorder since last night.

The Lions Club has issued an invitation to the Danville Kiwanis Club to be their guests on the night of March 20th. The scene of the supper has not been definitely determined upon but the Lions are said to be preparing an interesting programme. This will be a return of the hospitality tendered the Lions by the Kiwanis recently.

The North Danville decisions committee of the Community Welfare Association will meet at five o'clock today in the rooms of the Danville Hotel. Mrs. T. E. White is chairman of this subdivision. Matters of considerable importance are to be dealt with.

Snow left its first definite impression on the Danville landscape Sunday evening and night about two inches being recorded in exposed places. The fall began under a lowering sky Sunday evening and threatened to be sustained through the night. The flakes, however, soon became a misty rain and the streets were not coated.

P. W. Emmerson Claimed by Death

Pleasant William Emmerson died at three o'clock this morning at Edmunds Hospital where he was admitted Tuesday three weeks ago for treatment. He had been growing in ill health for the past two years. Mr. Emmerson was 69 years of age and was born in Pittsylvania county and had lived in Danville for about 20 years. He was a member of Shelton Memorial Presbyterian church in North Danville, having joined there during his residence there prior to his removal to 148 Park avenue, where he had recently resided with a son. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. J. T. Carroll, Richmond; W. T. Emmerson, of Witt; L. C. Emmerson, F. L. Emmerson, and Mrs. John Pruitt, all of this city.

The funeral will be held from his late home on Park avenue at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, and will be conducted by Rev. L. A. Mickel. Interment will be in Leedom cemetery.

Steady Progress Shown By Greene

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The condition of Senator Greene, of Vermont, continued today to show improvement. Although he was not regarded by attendants as being entirely out of danger from the bullet wound in his chest, he was greatly encouraged by his steady progress.

Herbert Henckel of the Chamber of Commerce Road Goods committee, this morning reported further good progress in putting Danville on the map in distinctive fashion. Through-out last week a crew of men with the Chamber of Commerce truck, worked the highway from Washington to Danville on which 92 black arrows on a golden background denoting Danville were placed at 2 1/2 mile intervals. The work done is considered highly valuable to this city as an advertisement. The road chosen for the experiment from Danville was a direct route to the most direct way which was marked some weeks ago. Starting from Danville the Chamber of Commerce workers went to Clover to Mount Laurel to Charlotte Court-house to Farmville to Cumberland to South Danville to Bon Air and into Richmond past the Country Club along the boulevard.

From Richmond the sign-posters hit the main artery of travel through the Valley putting up signs at every cross road and leaving no doubt in the minds of travelers the best road to this city. They returned from Washington by way of Petersburg marking the road by way of Victoria to a point near Danville which already has been marked with signs.

RENEW FIGHT ON DAUGHERTY TO OUST HIM

Report On Resolution Calling For Investigation of Administration to Be Made Today.

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The report of the Senate audit committee on the resolution providing for an investigation of the administration of the department of justice was the signal for a renewal today of the fight on Attorney General Daugherty.

Action on the resolution was prevented last week because provision incorporated in it naming the special committee to conduct the inquiry and Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, who introduced it, was prevented when the Senate convened today, to modify this feature in such a way as to permit election of the inquiry personnel by the chamber. He was determined to make a fight. He will present Senator Brookhart, of Iowa, Republican, insurgent, selected as chairman, despite the opposition of organization Republican leaders. His other suggestions for the committee membership included Senator Jones, of Washington and McLean of Connecticut, Republicans, and Ashurst, of Arizona, and himself, Democrats, have aroused no serious opposition. A large volume of reports have come to Senator Wheeler since he introduced his resolution, and it will take him some time to sort and assimilate these before he will be ready for the inquiry to begin. He will present his side of the case first and will insist that the attorney general appear in person when given an opportunity to reply.

Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, who said in the Senate Saturday he was ready to help lay a foundation for impeachment proceedings against the attorney general, conferred with President Coolidge again last night at the White House. The visit is understood to have been at Mr. Coolidge's invitation and they talked over the suggestions made in Mr. Borah's Senate speech.

There was nothing to indicate today what position the president had taken or what might be the outcome of the conference.

EXPERTS BEGIN ON FINAL TASK

Prepare Report to Reparation Commission as to Conditions in Germany.

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
PARIS, Feb. 25.—The committee of experts headed by Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes began today its final task—the preparation of its report to the reparation commission. The experts are anxious to frame a plan which will require no revision.

The secret of the conclusions reached by the committee with the exception of the few fundamental points already revealed is still being kept. All the guesses thus far hazarded are declared by members of the committee to be well beyond the mark, especially the estimates as to the amount of foreign money in Germany. The greatest surprise the experts met with in Germany, it is understood, on the best authority, was the amount of foreign money in Germany. The experts are anxious to frame a plan which will require no revision.

General Dawes was asked yesterday by the correspondent whether Premier Poincare referred to him in the chamber of deputies Saturday in saying that one of the experts recently told a French colleague, "we should have been unable to reach our present results were you not in the Ruhr."

"Certainly I said it," said General Dawes. "I repeat it. If the French were not in the Ruhr we experts would not be here."

"I said it as early as February 1923. I repeated it to my colleagues on the committee and I am telling it to you now because I believe it."

DOCK STRIKE IS CALLED OFF

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
LONDON, Feb. 25.—The conference of dock workers today called off the dockers' strike, which has been in progress since February 15, seriously interfering with commerce and industry. Work will be resumed at all ports at 7:20 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Only two-thirds of the baggage from the liner Berengaria has been brought to London and some of the passengers who came from Southampton with only such clothing as they were getting a little baggy about the knees. Trafalgar Square saw an unusual scene yesterday when some of the baggage from the Berengaria arrived in Lorries and was unloaded with the assistance of its owners. The Cunard line expects to have the remainder delivered before tonight.

Office workers from the United States lines went to Southampton yesterday and loaded the mails aboard the America for New York.

Thought Dead Girl Learns She Is Heir to Fortune

(By Chicago Tribune Service)

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—To be legally dead for five years, to fight one's way slowly back toward health against tremendous odds, and to fall suddenly heir to a modest fortune, has been the experience of Miss Edna Michael, it was learned today. And to all of the above, Miss Michael's only comment was "It's the only good fortune I've had in my life."

Miss Michael and a sister, now dead, were committed to an orphanage here thirty years ago. Twenty years ago their grandfather died in Indiana and left them a snug sum of money. The money was in the country but no trace of the sisters could be found. It was finally believed that they had perished in the Eastland disaster and the courts declared them legally dead.

The executors, however, continued to hold the estate intact, and a final search started several weeks ago, disclosing the one sister actually dead and Edna Michael in a sanatorium where she had been seriously ill for a long time. She had been supporting herself by part-time work in a tuberculosis sanatorium. Today, all legal obstacles had been cleared away and Miss Michael received the first installment of the funds which have been held for her for twenty years.

King Emmanuel Shows Improvement

ROME, Feb. 25.—The health of King Victor Emmanuel who has been ill with influenza, was greatly improved today. His temperature has been restored to normal.

Crown Prince Humbert, also an influenza victim, was able to leave his bed today and is expected shortly to resume his usual activities.

FRENCH MOVIE STAR AND BRIDE ARE NEAR DEATH

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service)
VIENNA, Feb. 25.—Max Linder, French movie star, and his bride were in a critical condition from today on a critical condition of the couple. Physicians are practically hopeless of saving the couple.

M. Linder kidnapped his wife, who was a wealthy society girl in Paris, last year, and afterward they eloped and were married.

SEVEN STOLEN DANVILLE CARS RECOVERED IN N. C. ARREST ALLEGED THIEVES

An intensive enquiry made by members of the Danville police department since last Thursday resulted today in the announcement that seven automobiles stolen within recent months from this city, have been traced, arrests made with the immediate prospect of the stolen cars being returned to their respective owners.

The revealing of another alleged band of automobile thieves operating between Lincoln, N. C., and Danville, resulted from the apprehension of Luther Frye on a charge of transporting liquor in Lincoln. The car seized by the officers was found to be a stolen one and this opened the way to the enquiry leading to the detection of several cars taken from the streets of Danville. The police recovered final share on Sunday, when C. C. Byrd was arrested at his home, 1012 Stokes street between nine and ten o'clock in the morning.

Officers lending their cooperation to the North Carolina authorities, effected the recovery of the cars and successful elimination of the enquiry included Patrolman W. T. Kessler, Officer O. C. Cook, and Detectives J. N. Campbell and J. C. Lewis. Kessler and Lewis have been in Lincoln for the past two days looking after the Danville end of the case. They secured sufficient evidence to warrant the sending of a telegram to Chief of Police Bell on Saturday, asking for the arrest of Byrd which was undertaken by Officers Campbell and Cook. Hastening to Byrd's house, they asked if Byrd was at home. Detective Campbell reported that he was and that Byrd was not in but just at that moment, Byrd emerging from the back door walked into the arms of the officers who apprehended him.

Removed to the courthouse, Byrd was questioned by the officers. Officer Campbell stated that Byrd secretly involved Frye in a statement in connection with the 1012 Stokes street Ford coupe on a street about ten days ago. Byrd is noted

LEGION OFFICIALS QUIETLY PLAN FOR CONVENTION

Officials of the Danville Post, American Legion, are not losing any time in preparing for the next annual convention of the Virginia department which will be held in this city in September. Although the date of the convention is yet distant, Commander Waverly Cousins has decided to take time by the forelock and to dispose of some of the preliminary problems in connection with the staging of probably one of the largest state conventions ever held in this city.

Mr. Cousins has already made provision for the housing of the delegates expected from all quarters of the Old Dominion and he reports a commendable spirit of cooperation by local institutions. The authorities of all three local colleges have placed at Mr. Cousins' disposal their buildings which will be vacant at the time of the convention and which will be used as sleeping quarters for the soldier delegates. Randolph Macon College has offered quarters for a hundred men. Averett College will house fully that many and if the local legion officials do not believe that D. M. I. is a little far removed, it also will be used for dormitory space during the run of the convention. Mr. Cousins is already arranging for the purchase of a building which will be sold off after the convention is over.

The exalted ruler of the Danville Lodge of Elks, with the expressed consent of other officers has offered the lodge the full use of the Elks Home during the convention and in all probability it will be designated as official headquarters during the convention though the business sessions will be held in the Elks Home. The auditorium which in all probability will be offered free of charge to the Danville Post. Mr. Cousins has gladly accepted the use of the Elks Home

Wilson Leaves Widow Estate; Other Clauses

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The will of Woodrow Wilson, for probate today, leaves the estate to his widow, Mrs. Edith Bolling Wilson, with the exception that his daughter, Margaret Wilson, shall receive $2,500 annual income as long as she remains unmarried.

A request in the will calls upon Mrs. Wilson to distribute among Mr. Wilson's daughters such articles of clothing, jewelry, personal mementoes and art works that may have belonged to their mother, the first wife of the former President.

Under the will Mrs. Wilson is to retain the estate during her life and the unexpended portion at her death is to be distributed among Mr. Wilson's daughters.

The will was opened February 13, according to a notation on the envelope, in the presence of Mrs. Wilson, Margaret Wilson, Eleanor Wilson, McAdoo, W. G. McAdoo and E. W. White, the attorney who filed it.

Bandits Rob Theater Safe

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25.—Bandits entered the Tranion theater here today and after a binding and gagging two night watchmen, blew open the safe and escaped with $2,200, representing the week-end receipts. The theater is the Saenger Amusement company's largest Canal street motion picture house.

Tendly Williamson, of Burlington, N. C., spent the weekend with James Seeger, Jr.

because of its central position. The street leading to the council has been contracted for and the Schoolfield band has also been provisionally retained for music during the event.

The Danville Post has not by any means lost hope of securing the person and tenders of General Pershing as one of the speakers. Senators Glass and Swanson will be used in seeking the famous fighting man's consent to come reinforced by Senator Royal Copeland of New York, a personal friend of the general and who promised while here to use his good offices in securing his attendance.

Alvin Owsley, a past commander of the American Legion as a national organization, is also expected to be here.

Mr. Cousins' convention committee named some time ago, are meeting frequently and are discussing various phases of the convention with the idea of disposing of them well in advance. One of the next matters which will be taken up will be the affording of live entertainment during the convention such as high class vaudeville. It is possible that a prima donna may be brought to Danville for one night during the convention.

The executive committee of the Legion has not yet appeared before the city council with a request for an appropriation which has been virtually promised. At the time Danville began its campaign to win the convention, the council gave its aid and assured the Legion that it would stand behind it financially in putting the event over in good shape. Mr. Cousins has already inside a rough draft of the expenses incident, to the affair and it is possible that the finance committee will be acquainted with the needs during the next few days in order that a budget plan may be made for it.

Harvey Miller Is Found Dead Seated In Chair

Harvey S. Miller, aged about 56, known as a fiddler in this entire section and the maker of such instruments was found dead in a rocking chair in his room at the Hotel Martin Haythe, Monroe street, at nine o'clock this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Haythe, alarmed at being unable to secure a response when they knocked at the door, opened the door this morning and finding further that the door was fastened, sent for the police and Police Sergeant J. H. Haraway, J. L. Edwards and Officer N. Reid, listened in a car to the home. Police Officer Haraway, Officer Haraway was just able to see the body of Miller reclining in his rocking chair, as though asleep. Cries falling to awaken him, he appeared to have dozed from his life without a tremor. As his feet were the comic supplement of a newspaper where it had slidden from his knees. The bed had not been slept in.

Miller was found to be dead, his head thrown back and mouth open. Death had apparently come to him painlessly and without warning, for he appeared to have dozed from his life without a tremor. As his feet were the comic supplement of a newspaper where it had slidden from his knees. The bed had not been slept in.

Officers remained on the scene and did not touch the body. The city coroner being called, found it unnecessary to hold an inquest. Death had evidently been caused by natural causes. When last seen alive, Sunday afternoon, at half past two o'clock, Miller was apparently in good health. It is assumed that on Sunday evening he went to his room to spend a dreary day by the comfort of his fire and reading the papers. He had evidently been dead several hours for rigor mortis had set in long before.

Mr. Miller was widely known as "Fiddler" and made a hobby of making instruments. He earned his living in the Riverside Mills, as a weaver. So far as known he has no local relatives, though the police this afternoon are trying to locate him if he has any kinsmen and if so, where.

Dr. Taylor spent some time this morning in trying to establish a connecting link with relatives. He said he had not been able to do so but had learned from a close friend some fragments of his life history. The friend with whom Dr. Taylor talked said that Miller had been married to his family but that it was probable that he was a native of South Carolina and that he had lived in Augusta, Ga., prior to coming to Danville some thirteen years ago. Dr. Taylor said he told that Miller had been married three times and that he had a son by his first wife from whom Miller had not heard for twenty years.

ARRESTED IN NEW ORLEANS

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25.—Orlando Thornton and Morris "Freddie" Turley, and their wife, wanted in Chicago in connection with the murder of John Duffy and his wife, were arrested here this forenoon.

STANDARD OIL CO. SAFE ROBBED OF OVER $700

Between seven and eight hundred dollars in cash and checks was stolen from the office of the Standard Oil Company's part on River street sometime between Saturday night and Sunday evening. The police were notified early this morning and an investigation of the robbery was begun.

Search was ordered the thieves by tearing out the lower end of a window casement in the store room and once within this structure access to the office was had through an unlocked door.

I. F. Grogan, local manager for the company, said this morning that not a single clue was left which would be of value. He stated that the safe was opened by manipulating the combination which, he said was loose and which, he added, showed signs of being tampered with. "So far as I know," he stated, "the safe was left locked on Saturday night when we

STATE FINANCES UPPERMOST IN SOLONS' MINDS

Calendars of Both Branches
In Good Shape and Leaders Are Pleased With Prospects.

(By the Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 25.—Both Houses of the Virginia General Assembly concentrated their efforts today on the passage of minor bills in order to clear the calendars for consideration of revenue bills in the Senate and the pilage measures in the House.

Twenty-nine bills of local character already adopted by the House, were passed by the Senate on one roll call, despite the protest in the House of T. Wickham, who said the practice of passing bills in bloc was unconstitutional and should be stopped. More than a score of pilage measures were passed by the House on separate roll calls in quick succession.

The House also reconsidered its vote of Saturday in approving the Senate resolution designating the route of the Virginia Historic Railway. Delegate Norris, Lancaster, argued that the route was incomplete and the resolution was referred to the House Committee on Roads for recommendation. Approval of the House bill naming the towns of Waynesboro-Basic, Waynesboro, was voted by the Senate.

(By the Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 25.—The Virginia General Assembly entered the home stretch of the 1924 session today with the calendars of both branches probably in better shape than at the same time of any previous session. Hundreds of bills, most of them of a local nature, were disposed of during the past week and the calendar of the House is in better shape than at the same time of any previous session. Hundreds of bills, most of them of a local nature, were disposed of during the past week and the calendar of the House is in better shape than at the same time of any previous session.

Several bills providing for increases in the tax rate on industries are scheduled for early consideration. It is also the White bill which would increase by 5 per cent. the taxes paid by corporations. Action on these measures will probably be taken this week-end recess today with the question of state finances uppermost in their minds.

The final phase of the pilage fight is scheduled for noon tomorrow, when all bills relating to the Virginia Pilots Association will come before the House of Delegates as the special and continuing order of business. The Senate will also come before the House with the unfavorable recommendation of its currency and commerce committee. Like the Oil measure, the Lester bill would place the pilots association under jurisdiction of the State Corporation, but it also would require publication of the earnings of the association.

By pleased with the condition of the calendar as the session swings into its last two weeks. That so much has been accomplished is due, they agreed, to the fact that the calendar is in better shape than at the same time of any previous session. Similar action is not expected in the Senate, however, and there were intimations that the general appropriation bill would be called in the upper branch until late this week or early next week.

Cox Formally a Candidate For President

(By the Associated Press.)
COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 25.—Former Gov. William M. Cox, of Dayton, the Democratic candidate for president in 1920, today filed with Secretary of State Brown official authorization for delegates to the Democratic National convention to use his name as their first choice for president. At the same time former Governor James E. Campbell, of Ohio, filed authorization for candidates to name him as their second choice for president which is to conform to Ohio law.

—Mrs. L. C. Caldwell, of Staebville, N. C., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Harris, on Jefferson street.

Piedmont Dental Society to Meet

The meeting of the Piedmont Dental Society in Danville on Friday, February 22nd, will be held in the auditorium of the Masonic Temple, the sessions and clinics being held there, with a dinner on Friday evening at the Country Club. Sessions will continue through Saturday, March 1st, with final adjournment that afternoon.

The opening feature of the convention program will be a clinic under the auspices of the Piedmont Study club of the society at 1 P. M. Friday, February 22nd, in the Masonic Temple at which time Samuel G. G. Temple, of New York, will give a demonstration and clinic on full and partial denture.

Later in the afternoon Dr. Elyenne G. M. Dr. of Roanoke, Va., will read on "Foreign Bodies of Dental Origin in the Lungs."

On Friday at 7 P. M. at the Country Club the visitors will be entertained at dinner. On this occasion Frank Talbot will make an address of welcome, with a response by Dr. W. A. Mosley, of South Boston. Other addresses will be made by Harry Wooding, Jr., and Dr. Samuel G. Senter.

On Saturday morning Dr. A. H. Sprinkel, of Staunton, will read an essay.

At 10:30 A. M. Dr. Basil B. Jones, of Richmond, a former Danville resident, will read a paper on "The Etiologic Relations of Dietary Deficiencies to Dental Abnormalities."

In the afternoon dental clinics will be conducted by Dr. H. T. Gosney and Dr. B. P. Jones, of this city.

The present officers of the society are: Dr. J. E. Johns, of Roanoke, president; Dr. Samuel A. Shadrach, of Danville, vice president; Dr. Richard B. Bost, of Lynchburg, secretary; and Dr. H. T. Gosney, of this city, treasurer.

PARKING SPACE IS OFFERED FOR BUS LINES NEAR BURTON

In conversation with a representative of this newspaper, Saturday, Herbert M. Henkel, manager of the Hotel Burton, discussed the suggestion or intimation that plans were in their incipency looking to providing a station for bus lines operating in every direction from this city to surrounding points. Mr. Henkel, who has been active in the work of marking the roads and posting signs pointing travelers to Danville, has also been active in his efforts to encourage the establishment and maintenance of these inter-community bus lines. He has been active in the work of marking the roads and posting signs pointing travelers to Danville, has also been active in his efforts to encourage the establishment and maintenance of these inter-community bus lines.

"This is only a suggestion. Instead of the city or the Chamber of Commerce going to the expense of establishing parking space for these busses, I suggest that the west side of Union street for the entire frontage of the Hotel Burton be made available for the standing and parking of busses, and that the entire main street be reserved for the loading and unloading of the public busses, with the exception, of through or tourist traffic, as it must be admitted that courtesies must be extended that class of travel. The Hotel Burton will without charge give space to post the schedule showing arrival and departure hours of these busses, as it has been our custom to do in the maintenance of a large board showing the hours of arrival and departure of railway trains."

NEGROES TRY TO ENTER SCHOOLS WITH WHITES

Colored parents have attempted to enter their children in the white public schools of Richmond in an incident that has just come to the attention of the bureau of vital statistics.

This case was brought to the attention of Dr. W. A. Plecker, head of the bureau, by the principal of the white school. The teacher suspected that children because of their features and asked for birth certificates. The parents tried to obtain these from the bureau where their children were registered as white parents. Upon further investigation it was found that the father was entered as colored.

This was the first time the children had attempted to enter the schools of Richmond. The parents stated that the children had attended a private school in the county where they formerly lived. When the bureau refused to grant certificates for white children the parents refused colored certificates.

NEGRO WOMAN WAS SHOT SATURDAY

Yesterday afternoon an alleged accidental shooting took place in North Danville, when Louise Herron, colored, wife of Louis Herron, died from a pistol wound in her side.

Louise states that when he returned from work to his home on Abbott street he and his wife became engaged in a friendly scuffle in their living room and during the scuffle a pistol was drawn from the mantle and discharged, the ball entering the side of the woman just above her stomach. She died before she could be removed from the house.

Louise was taken into custody pending investigation.

The colored couple had been married some time and had recently moved from Ferguson street to Abbott street where they occupied a house to themselves which, Louise stated, was the wish of his wife. The dead woman was about 24 years of age and her husband is about the same age.

FORD SUIT DISMISSED

(By the Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Federal Judge Knickerbocker today dismissed a $115,000 writ of attachment obtained against Henry Ford by Herman Bernstein, Jewish editor, in Bernstein's $200,000 libel suit against the manufacturer.

The court held that Bernstein had failed to show sufficient proof to warrant the seizure and retention of the money under the writ.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping, cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every week for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

Y. W. C. A. ACTIVITIES

Each day this week has brought its full quota of interesting events to the groups actively connected with the Y. W. C. A. With to over widening horizon of the Association interest in its leaders and the greater growth of the organization in which to develop the program.

Blue Triangle Tea Room: The Blue Triangle Tea Room is already proving a community asset, and it is the purpose of the Y. W. C. A. to make the Tea Room a hospital city center the true sense of the word. The Y. W. C. A. is most fortunate in having as its guide and advisor at this time Miss Marion Hopkins, a food specialist and organizer of cafeterias and tea rooms. Miss Hopkins came to Danville from the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association in New York City.

Miss Hopkins out of a broad experience has offered many suggestions for the development of the Tea Room. These suggestions cannot but prove of constructive value. The coming week will see a change in the menu both as to prices and variety. An inexpensive business girl's luncheon, a business man's luncheon, will make a strong appeal, it is felt. A number of small parties as well as large banquets for the weeks ahead are scheduled. The banquet served the Elks Club on Thursday evening in the Blue Triangle banquet hall was a real triumph. The room was beautifully decorated with trailing smilax by Mr. T. M. Myers of the Eldridge Flower Company. Palms and bright hued flowers gave a spring like touch and charm to the room. The supper was pronounced excellent by the Club guests. The Tea Room staff was greatly aided in their first venture at entertaining a large group by a committee of ladies who worked untiringly for the success of the banquet. The committee was made up of the following ladies: Mrs. Rucker Penn, president of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Mazine Wells, Mrs. George Ray, Mrs. M. Hinchliffe and Mrs. Estelle J. Hinchliffe.

Membership Committee Meets: The Membership Committee met on Monday to plan the Annual Membership Campaign which opens the first of March. The committee will work in Danville will give an opportunity to renew her membership and to join the Young Women's Christian Association if she is not already a member. Every girl and woman in Danville should be a member of this largest organization for women in the world. Membership in the Young Women's Christian Association means:

Membership in a world wide organization.

Every girl has an opportunity to join Bible and Educational classes.

Measuring one's life by the highest ideals.

Best fellowship in the city.

Entertainment, recreation and growth.

Representation in an ideal democracy.

Share in definite force for good in Danville.

Her to grow into fuller Christian womanhood.

Inspiration of Christian leadership.

Participation in a well-rounded life of work play and service.

Next Saturday afternoon, March 2nd, there will be a tea at five o'clock in the Association living room for all who will take part in the membership campaign. Instructions and helpful suggestions will be given to the workers and a social hour will follow. It is hoped that there will be a full attendance at this important meeting so that the canvassers can begin their work Monday morning, March the third, with an intelligent idea of the work before them.

Meeting of Girls' Work Committee: The Girls' Work Committee, Mrs. Robert R. Murray, chairman, will meet Wednesday, February 27th at 10:30 a. m. The following members and advisors are asked to be present: Mrs. L. L. Kaufman, Mrs. J. C. Heister, Miss Elizabeth Penn, Miss Mazine Wells Penn, Miss Annie James, Miss Helen Cook, Mrs. Edwin Meade, Mrs. William Meade, Mrs. Addington and Mrs. Jack Whittington.

Industrial Department: The Industrial and Business Clubs are growing in numbers and enthusiasm each club has elected delegates to the National Convention to be held in New York City in May. Miss Walker Sneed, president of the club, Miss Lorraine Laughlin and Miss Gertrude Adams will represent the Business Girls Club. Miss Tina Vernon of that club was appointed as the delegate from the Girls' Industrial Club.

The Industrial Department is concentrating its every thought on Musical Comedy to be given late in April under the direction of the Rogers Producing Company. This promises to be one of the big events of the Spring, the department hopes to enlist the interest of all Danville's gifted musical people in taking some part in the cast.

Washington Tea: The Industrial Girls' Club entertained the Industrial Committee and the Advisory of the club yesterday afternoon from four to six o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. with a Washington Tea. The living room of the Association was decorated with flags and hatches and looked most attractive in its color scheme of red and white. Tea was poured by Miss Annie Sue Kellam who presided at the tea table. She was assisted in serving by Misses Minnie Eaves, Celia Dodson, Emma Dodson, Gladys Young, Nellie Goss and Gertrude Bragg. A program of piano and violin music and reading was much enjoyed.

Girls' Reserve: The Mt. Vernon Scout troop has voted to become a Girl Reserve Troop and this Triangle promises to be of the most enthusiastic for Girl Reserves. Wednesday, at a meeting at the church, a good representative number of Scouts gathered for the change. Friday Miss Smith, the advisor for the Mt. Vernon Triangle, took the volunteer Reserves on a weenie roast. The day was cold but not the spirits of the girls. Several girls won their honor for buying five out of seven of red and white paper and only one match.

The next meeting of the Volunteer Reserves will be Friday at 3:30 at the church. This will be the organization meeting and officers will be elected. Committees on Membership and Social Service will be formed. The vice president will act alone as a committee on honors and her duties

TODAY OUR HAT'S OFF TO

Elsie Hammer. Elsie still is at kindergarten age, but she's the sensation of the stage in Venice. And if you think that's easy let your five-year-old child get up in front of an audience and "knock 'em cold." Elsie "stomps the show," as they say, so often, she makes the applause, given the average, actress sound like the whisper of the pines in a lonesome hollow.

In other words, to American theatregoers she would be known as the eel's cat-muffs and the snakes hips. Which, translated means—she's very, very good.

will be to try to make her Triangle the long Triangle of the city. Up to this time the Reserves have only been organized in the schools, but now the Y. W. C. A. will be glad to go into the churches upon request of the minister or superintendent of the Sunday school. During the Membership drive of the Y. W. C. A. the Girl Reserves program will be put before all the churches and Sunday schools, the Parent-Teachers Associations, and the schools. It is hoped that the older people will become interested in what the Girl Reserve movement can do for the girlhood of Danville.

The latest addition to the Girl Reserve department is Mrs. Jack Whittington, an advisor Mrs. Whittington being the Scout Executive has promised to assist the Reserves and Mrs. Whittington known Scout work as well as Reserve work. Mrs. Whittington had had training for an advisor and she is most welcome into the Danville volunteer workers. She will probably change of the Stone-wall Jackson Triangle and is contemplating work in her circle.

The Freshman Club held their regular weekly meeting at the "Y" Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There were twenty members present and the two advisors, Miss Annie James and Miss Frances Hall. The program was in charge of Virginia McKinney. "True Standards" was the topic discussed. Isabelle Swann gave the Standards of George Washington. Annie Garrett gave the Standards of a Girl Reserve and read the following poem written by Virgie Richardson:

"A Girl Reserve you ought to be
There's nothing quite so fine
As meeting each Friday at half-past three
After a hard school grind.
We stories tell or games we play
We have a social time
And something new we learn each day
As shows my little rhyme
No come alone and not wait
There's nothing better you deserve.
Three-thirty is the time
Don't be late, come be a Girl Reserve."

CHATHAM NEWS

(Special to The Rec)

CHATHAM, Va., Feb. 23.—The most delightful event of the season was at the spacious home of Mrs. Frank Marshall on Friday night when the members of the Sans Souci club entertained their husbands. Covers were laid for forty-eight and the elegant menu consisted of sliced ham, cold turkey, green peas, watercress, hot rolls, cranberry jelly, hot coffee, tomatoes with mayonnaise, brick ice cream and cake. After the inner cravings had been satisfied the tables were cleared and the very popular game, rook, was engaged and enjoyed for several hours. The occasion was in memory of the great American George Washington and the pleasure of the evening was interspersed with clippings befitting the occasion.

The vocational conference at the Chatham Training School on Friday was an event of much benefit to the educational interest of this place and the lectures were of much value. At the morning session Dr. J. N. Kester of the Baptist Foreign Mission Board spoke on the "World Outlook" and his subject covered a wide range and was presented in a most practical and interesting way. In the afternoon Dr. Holvic Harlan of the chair of sociology of the University of Richmond university, lectured on "Having a definite purpose in view" and being ready when the young man emerges from college to begin the duties of life. Dr. Harlan in his discussion covered the subjects of every day life and the gist of his valuable lecture was the importance of being prepared for the realities of life and ready to meet whatever may come in the way. Dr. J. W. Cammack, educational secretary of the Baptist System of Schools of Virginia, presided and made a short address on his work. The occasion is one that rarely comes to a community and its good will be of untold value.

J. Spruce White, of South Carolina, was guest of relatives this week.

Rev. H. B. Hardaway, sick for several weeks will be at his regular appointment at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Miss Janie Whitehead entertained a party of friends at her home about three miles from Chatham on Friday afternoon. The occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

County Supt. F. B. Watson and Dr. W. T. Canada left on Thursday night for Richmond.

The damage following the heavy sleet of this week has been about restored by the Chatham Light and Power company, but the extent was much greater than at first thought as the line from this place to Gretna was torn down in many places and the loss considerable. A good force has been working on the lines of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company by this place which lines were very much damaged by sleet and falling trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus Marshall were the week-end guests of Frank Marshall in south Chatham.

REIDSVILLE NEWS

REIDSVILLE, N. C., Feb. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clarke are spending the week at Southern Pines, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Hart.

Mrs. P. A. Willis has returned from a delightful visit to relatives in Kingston and Winston, N. C. Graves.

Mr. W. B. Wray and Dr. T. G. Jett spent the week-end in New York City and Philadelphia.

Robert B. Gladstone, of the State University, is spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Gladstone.

D. R. Allen, Jr., spent Sunday here with his parents, leaving the first of the week for Winston-Salem.

Rev. J. P. Burke, of Valle Crucis, was a visitor here the first of the week and extended his visit to Yanceyville where his wife is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Gladstone.

Mr. J. H. Walker is quite ill in a hospital in High Point.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Miles entertained the members of the Baptist church choir at their home on Main street decorations and favors appropriate for George Washington's Day were most attractive.

Miss Billy Blair, of Greensboro, was a visitor in the home of Miss Fannie B. Gardner this week.

A delightful Valentine party was given at the C. A. Hall on Friday evening by Misses Winnie Alridge, Annie Trent, Anna Montgomery and Margaret Johnston. Six tables were arranged for bridge and rook. This party was given to the Senior class of 1924 and the High School faculty.

The Sunday evening singers and sacred concerts at the Belvedere Hotel continue in favor.

The heaviest and most destructive sleet ever known in this locality visited Reidsville Tuesday night. Much damage was done to the beautiful shade trees, fruit trees, and the electric current completely.

One fatality, Mr. O. C. Crenshaw, an electrician, was at work on the power line seven miles south of Reidsville and was instantly killed. He is survived by his widow and one child.

A meeting of the County Commissioners at Wentworth Thursday it was decided to call off all plans to build Fishing Creek bridge.

Mr. C. A. Penn had as his guests for several days Mr. William Edgington and Irvin S. Cobb, of New York, who left Monday for a hunt at their lodge in Guilford county and were accompanied by Messrs. S. C. Penn, F. W. King and G. E. Crutchfield from Reidsville.

Mrs. W. R. Dalton delightfully entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Reading club. The roll call was answered by a famous critic. A delicious lunch was served during the social hour.

The friends here of Charles A. Stevens, of New York, but a former citizen of Reidsville, were sorry to learn of his death which occurred in New York Thursday. He was married several years ago to Miss Ione Ellington, who survives him, also one brother and three sisters. Mrs. C. H. Pettigrew and Mrs. J. R. Newman of Reidsville, and Miss Nettie Stevens of Winston-Salem. His remains were brought to Reidsville for burial.

The Art and Travel Club was delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Evelyn Kemp on Tuesday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of a splendid program.

Mrs. M. D. Holderby and Frank Holderby are confined to their home with influenza.

On Friday night at the High School auditorium a splendid community singing was held. A most attractive program had been arranged by Mrs. Francis Womack, who has charge of the music in the schools.

Stop the children's coughs at once!

DON'T let them run on until dangerous complications set in. Nothing so quickly stops coughing as Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. ## Large Number of Telephone Conversations Reflect City's Business and Social Activities

The business and social activities of Danville are accurately reflected in the volume of telephone conversation during a typical day. The hourly rise or fall of telephone calls can be charted like a mariner's course.

The highest traffic point or "peak of the hour," as it is called in telephone parlance, is reached between 9 and 11 o'clock in the morning. That is when business begins to get into full swing. Stores and establishments of all kinds open and business telephones during this period are taxed to their capacity.

From 11 o'clock on the traffic drops slightly until the lunch hour around 1 o'clock. Then it rises again until other peaks are reached about 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock.

In the shopping districts calls are most frequent between 3 and 4 o'clock and in residential sections there are two high points—one around 9 o'clock in the morning when the housewife is placing her orders with the butcher, baker and grocer, and the other about 7 o'clock when evening engagements are being made. After that telephone traffic gradually dwindles away until midnight finds the switchboard practically idle.

The traffic curve sometimes gives a spectacular illustration of how sensitive it is to the public pulse. A big fire or accident will send hundreds of anxious people to the telephone and the trend of local calls will shoot upward. A rainy day that drives people off the streets or the interruption of transportation service increases the number of telephone calls very noticeably.

In Danville there are 33,000 telephone calls every 24 hours. Approximately 60 per cent. of the telephones here are in residences and from these the daily calls are made. The extensive installation of extension stations in homes has produced many more calls because the telephone is more convenient and can be reached with little effort.

When there are large families in a home the telephone is worked overtime after school hours and in the evening. In many cases the time for using it is scheduled by the various young members of the family. Children are becoming very adept in telephone usage. They call each other for advice about lessons, make appointments, and discuss the latest school news. Boys, especially those interested in radio, enlist the service of the telephone in telling each other about their sets and the programs they are hearing.

Business telephones in Danville comprise 40 per cent. of the total number but over them 55 per cent. of the calls during a typical day are made. The wholesale and jobbing houses call their customers in the city and in the surrounding territory in an effort to secure business with the least expenditure of time and money. Hundreds of calls are made by grocers, meat dealers and bakers in soliciting orders. The tables of Danville are supplied largely by orders given over the telephone.

The number of telephone calls here is constantly increasing. The old adage, "Speech is silver and silence is golden," does not apply in this day and time when everyone uses the telephone.

NERVOUSNESS GOES! SLEEP COMES BACK!

Mrs. Kipp, of E. Allentown, Says She Never Had Such Relief in Her Life

"I was so nervous I could not sleep a whole night," writes Mrs. Susan Kipp, of E. Allentown, Pa. "I was not able to eat a good hearty meal. I have been doctoring right along for over a year, but still felt the same."

"But since I started to take Paw Paw Tonic I have surely felt fine. I surely can't of Munyon's Paw Paw Tonic at any not say enough for it or begin to tell first-class drug store and let it help how wonderfully it helped me. My 'Munyon's' stomach trouble is gone as well as my 'Every Ill.' Munyon's, Scranton, Pa."

SHENANDOAH CREW "SORE" OVER CALLING TRIP OFF

By ROBERT T. SMALL
(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)
LAKEHURST, N. J., Feb. 25.—For a crew of men who have been saved by "executive clothing" from almost certain death, the blue jackets of the U. S. S. Shenandoah are about the most ungrateful lot to be found on the topside of the earth. They are moving about the hangar of the big ship long-faced and mooping. They look for all the world as if they were hanging Danny Deever in the morning. Their gloom has known no bounds since word was flashed from London that the British trans-oceanic ship R. M. S. Lusitania had been sunk by a dash for the North pole abandoned by the Shenandoah on orders from President Coolidge.

Polar conditions prevailed over all the Lakehurst air stations today. The ground is covered to a depth of 8 inches or more with frozen rain. A Northwest wind swept the thermometer down toward the zero point. But, cold as the wind, it is the heart of the Shenandoah's crew. They have been told time and time again by geographers, meteorologists, astronomers and various other scientists of low and high degree that the chances against the success of the proposed polar pilgrimage were about 1,000 to 1. Yet the spirit of adventure in the crew, or call it faith in the Shenandoah, if you will, is supposed to be a personal grievance toward Washington for calling off the plans for the voyage until Congress can have time to consider and pass upon the scheme.

If Congress is to take charge of the Shenandoah the members of the crew say they will be spending the summer and autumn months doing stunts all over the county fairs in the country. This is election year, and the crew, who are called and called to the county fairs, have a distinct advantage over all of his opponents. Naturally such a program does not appeal to the crew, but they have to go somewhere and accomplish something. Other airships have made longer flights than the Shenandoah. It is true quite a lot of them have come

"Yellow Kid" Now Figures as a Co-Respondent

(By Chicago Tribune Service)
CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Joseph Weil, the "Yellow Kid," has been accused of many things. He holds the peerage among comic men and now awaits trial on a recent comic game, in which a rich Detroit man was the victim. But he now enters the list of "other men"—the divorce correspondents field. And it is Mike Carozzo, labor leader, who accuses Weil of luring away his wife.

Carozzo today brought suit for divorce against his second wife, Helen, whom he married last August. He named one "Joseph Weil." It's a new role for "Kid" to now that he doesn't himself believe it.

"I've heard of Carozzo," he said when informed of the suit. "But I have never seen him nor his wife. It seems a few weeks ago when Mike was only in Cuba and the 'Kid' had just eased his way out of the penitentiary," said Carozzo's attorney.

"Mike's friends began running him around with Weil so he hurried back and found it was true."

Town Has First Snow In 40 Years

(By Chicago Tribune Service)
NICE, Feb. 25.—(Radio) Snow fell on the town today for the first time in forty-three years. The flakes melted as soon as they touched the ground, while crowds of winter tourists huddled in fur coats and tried to gather up enough to make a snowball.

"If You Put Apinol on it Right Away A Wound Never Gets Sore."

So declares a Greensboro, N. C., druggist, after several years' experience in recommending Apinol for first aid and the successful healing of wounds.

His store is in the cotton mill district where injuries to fingers and arms are frequent.

This druggist adds that Apinol is not poisonous nor is it diluted before use and has the further value, unusual in antiseptics of relieving the pain of a wound.

He says that if treated promptly with Apinol, wound rarely, if ever, develops pus.

The pint size, $1.25 is most useful in the mills and in large families, but the ordinary family usually buys the 2-ounce size for 30c.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung troubles. To stop them, use Dr. Harris' Prescription. A new medical discovery with two fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creosolins contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creosolins is a guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchitis, catarrh, bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung trouble. It is the best for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. All you need is Dr. Harris' Prescription. All you need is Dr. Harris' Prescription.

S. A. OFFICERS MUST QUIT SECRET ORDERS

Means Secession of American Branch From Parent Organization in England.

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Secession of the American Branch of the Salvation Army from the parent organization in England today was seen by officers of the army as a possible result of the recent action in London of General Bramwell Booth in appointing officers calling upon officers to quit secret societies and prohibiting them from making such affiliations in the future.

It was declared by some officers that a large number of the country were members of secret organizations and that compliance with the orders from London eventually would lead to secession of complete paralysis of the American branch.

It was pointed out that the Salvation Army frequently had accepted the assistance of secret societies in raising money.

An article in a recent issue of the Staff Review, the international official organ of the Salvation Army, has been approved by General Booth as "openly worldly." It mentions alleged free use of intoxicants in them and secret functions, to attend which was "to condone habits too often at variance with our teaching and standard."

Negro Is Killed In Gun Battle In Halifax County

(Special to The Bee)
HALIFAX, Va., Feb. 25.—County officers have appealed to the North Carolina authorities to assist in the capture of Jack Wade, negro, of this county, who is sought for his part in a gun battle between three colored men, and which occurred a few nights ago near Mayo. In the shooting affray, Tom Wade, Jack's brother, was instantly killed, the third man, Henry Johnson, being seriously wounded. The story learned by the officers is in substance as follows:

Johnson was suspected by Jack Wade with undue attentiveness to his wife, had they passed words on the subject before. Wade apparently having failed, Wade summoned his brother, Tom, from LaCrosse, and they decided to make the matter in their own hands. Armed with shot guns they went to Johnson's home in the night time and called him to the door. Johnson emerged, but had taken the precaution to arm himself, suspecting the purpose of the midnight interruption. Johnson was prevailed upon to meet one of the Wade brothers at a local store, and on arrival there both brothers opened fire on Johnson. The negro, however, took refuge behind a tree and drawing his revolver he opened fire on the two assailants. Tom Wade instantly and wounding the other brother.

Daylight revealed a trail of blood but there was no sign of Jack Wade, who is believed to be hiding over the North Carolina line.

A BUSY CORNER IN DANVILLE

FEDERALS SCORE BIG VICTORY OVER REBELS

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
MEXICO CITY, Feb. 25.—(Via Radio) Port of Spain Telegram.—Secretary of War Serrano declared in a statement yesterday that a crushing defeat had been administered by Obregon troops on rebel forces under Jose Moran at De La Cruz. This defeat, according to Serrano, makes the position of Tuxpam a question of only a few days.

Coincidentally, with the capture of Tuxpam, the occupation of Jalapa by forces of Almazan is expected.

Concerning operations around Tehuantepec isthmus, Serrano stated that a junction is imminent between a federal column advancing south from Tierra Blanca and troops under Bonito Bravo Izquierdo and Juan Dominguez, which would give a total strength of 6,000 troops for attack upon Puerto Mexico, where it is understood scattered remnants of rebels are concentrated.

The secretary confirmed reports that General Miguel Alfoa has asked terms for capitulation for 1,000 followers, which President Obregon is handling personally, but declined to give further details.

Cardenas has been ordered to take command at Colima where telegraphic communication has been established.

It was learned from the War Department that General Lucas Gonzalez left Mexico City with a force of 1,500 cavalry which he commands for the purpose of participating in the Hidalgo campaign against Cavazos who has been cutting the railway.

Colonel Guillermo Rosas Flores, commandant at Matamoros, reported to the War Department that the rebellion in the state of Tamaulipas has been quelled and that the principal leaders of the revolt have entered the United States, including ex-Governor Oscar Lopez de Lara and General Juan Vidal.

Private advices received in Mexico City are to the effect that preparations are being made at Mazatlan to receive President Obregon, who, it is reported, intends to confer with Flores in that city within a fortnight.

Farmers Would Also Benefit By Food Shipments

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Relief for the children of Germany will "not only save the starving youngsters" Major General Allen, who was commander in chief of the American army of occupation, declared in an appeal made public today by the federal council of churches, but it will help American farmers by taking surplus food supplies and "is in the interest of peace."

"It will keep a nation of 62,000,000 persons from political and social chaos," he said. "Germany is a hungry nation. A hungry nation is always dangerous not only to itself, but also to others. The United States is regarded by the Germans as being the nation most responsible for their defeat. Help at this time will turn enemy into friendship."

Such relief, he thought, would "raise a heavy burden" from France instead of burdening that nation. French sentiment, he added, "is overwhelmed against allowing the German children to starve," and he expressed the conviction that "Christlike action in America is the only hope of the children and babies of Germany."

Firpo-Wills Bout Is Likely to Be Called Off Now

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Abandonment of the proposed bout between Luis Angel Firpo and Harry Wills, negro contender for the heavyweight title, next July, under auspices of a syndicate headed by Lew Raymond, seemed probable today.

The syndicate planned to deposit a $50,000 forfeit this week in a New York bank and ask Firpo to place himself under its control from the time he arrives in this country until the moment he enters the ring with Wills.

Dispatches from Buenos Aires say Firpo will not accept the condition.

TWO DEAD IN PISTOL FIGHT

(By Chicago Tribune Service)
CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 25.—Two men are dead and two other persons were being questioned by police early today as the result of a pistol battle last night which is said to have been the culmination of a black mail plot.

The dead are: Rafaela Tranco, 36 and Mike Tranco, 33, who with a third man are said to have gone to the home of Mrs. Nettie Anelli 21, last night to see if demands they are alleged to have made Thursday night would be carried out. The third man, who is alleged to have given his name as Tony Savard, was arrested early today.

The other persons being held is Mrs. Anelli.

Police this morning are searching for the husband of Mrs. Anelli, who she says, left home after receiving the threats. Mrs. Anelli, armed with three revolvers, fired a dozen shots at the three men after they had fired a shot through the window of her home, she told police. More than a score of shots were exchanged.

No Foul Play In Negro's Death

The body of an aged negro found in the bottom of the canal near the Danville plant on Saturday afternoon and which was identified Saturday evening as that of Anderson Harris of Sprax, N. C., will be buried in Oak Hill cemetery this evening. The coroner satisfied that the negro did not meet with foul play even though it was established that he did not die from drowning, his lungs being found clear upon autopsy.

The theory is that the negro was walking along the bank of the canal probably last Tuesday night, was overcome with heart failure and fell into the water. Identification was made by Emma Harris, daughter of the negro who lives here on Abbott street. She told the authorities that her father left her home on Tuesday night intent on returning to Sprax. She had presumed that he had safely arrived at his destination.

THINK JEALOUSY WAS MOTIVE FOR DOUBLE MURDER

Authorities Working on Disclosures Furnished by Louisville Woman, Intimate Friend of Slain Couple in Chicago.

(By Chicago Tribune Service)
CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Investigation of the mysterious slaying Friday of John Duffy and his wife is centering on a jealousy theory as a result of disclosures said to have been made by Ruby Downing of Louisville, Ky., an intimate friend of the couple brought here for questioning. Authorities in other cities have been asked to look for a Chicago nurse named Dolly—said by the police to have been a former sweetheart of Duffy—and for James Zolar, former business promoter for a Memphis or Nashville firm. Zolar at one time employed Mrs. Duffy, then Miss Leah Exley, as his secretary in Columbus, Ohio, according to Miss Downing's alleged statement to the police.

According to the story Miss Downing is alleged to have told Harold Levy, assistant states attorney, the Exley girl, daughter of a wealthy retired operator and partner of Columbus, Ohio, at one time attended California University, where she was a creditable student.

Dissatisfied with farm life, according to the story, the girl went to Columbus, O., where she met Zolar. Later she left him and went to Louisville, Ky., where she received letters making threats from Zolar, Miss Downing states.

Duffy and Orlando Horton, who is being sought in connection with the slayings, visited Louisville last fall and later Miss Exley came to Chicago. She and Duffy were married in Louisville one week prior to the finding of their bodies in the apartment.

Meanwhile officials in Indianapolis are investigating a theory that the double slayings were planned in that city. Inquiry there has disclosed that Morris "Frankie" Curtis, believed to have been the blonde youth seen in the apartment shared by Horton and Duffy left Indianapolis last Tuesday ostensibly for Detroit, accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Horton. Duffy's body was found Friday morning with three bullet holes in the head, lying in a snow bank near Argo, Ill., a suburb. His wife's body, a bullet hole through the head, was found a dozen hours later on a Dayton street in the apartment they shared with the Hortons.

Police are unable to account for the significance of two sets of wine glasses beside a partly filled whiskey flask, used shortly before or after the slaying in the apartment. The woman was shot while asleep, detectives say.

However, —comma— BY JAMES W. DEAN

By JAMES W. DEAN
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—This reviewer usually sticks to the bitter end of any show no matter how poor it is. Some very poor plays are very entertaining because they become ludicrous. Thus it seems that "The Chiffon Girl" is a dull, dull play. For the first time this season your correspondent walked out long before the final curtain.

The only redeeming feature in the slinging of Eleanor Painter and the songs written for her run the scales like a cat-on-the-fence solo. "The Chiffon Girl" in the season of unusually good musical comedy takes its place at the bottom of the list.

Oscar Hammerstein, 2nd, has inherited a fine sense of the theater. Four shows now on Broadway have come wholly or in part from his pen. They are "Wildflower," "Mary Jane McKane," "Gypsy Jim," and "New Toys." The last was written in collaboration with Milton Herbert Cropper and is one of the finest comedies of the season.

"New Toys" is replete with old tricks and twists of the stage. Probably that is the reason that so many of its lines are so good. It is a comedy about the second year of married life and its main reliance is in little situations that are familiar to anyone in the audience who has been married two years or more.

James Truax was never better than he is in this despite his inability to completely shed the mannerisms of an inept actor which made him famous in a previous role.

With the passing of Woodrow Wilson many books dealing with intimate phases of his life are to be expected. The first to be published by one of his official family is "With Congress and Cabinet," by Wm. C. Redfield, who was secretary of commerce under Wilson.

Arnold Bennett and Ellen Glasgow have agreed on a list of the five best novels in the English language. They are "Tom Jones," "Vanity Fair," "David Copperfield," "Jude the Obscure," and "The Egoist." Bennett refused to second Miss Glasgow's nomination of "Old Wives' Tale." The list submitted by these two might be taken as expert opinion on what to read these winter evenings.

Cough, cough, coughing— all night long

You can stop it . . .

That cough—it keeps you awake at night, breaks your rest, wastes your strength, endangers the delicate tissues of your throat and chest—break it up now.

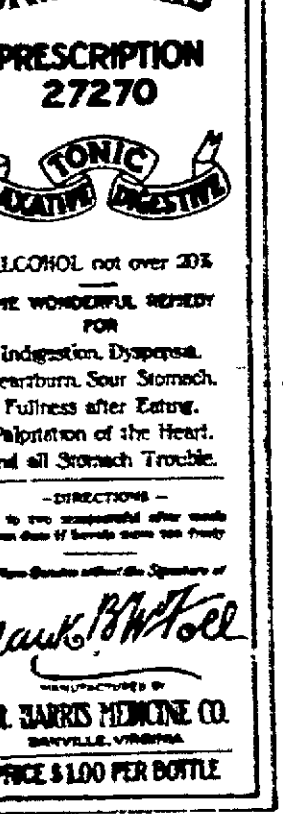

For more than fifty years, thousands of families have relied upon Dr. King's New Discovery to break up coughs. It does this quickly, naturally by stimulating the mucous membranes to throw off the secretions that are clogging them. Harmlessly, and without any bad after-effects, it quiets the throat and lung spasms, and the irritation that is causing the cough then promptly clears up. It has an agreeable taste. All druggists.

Wedding Guests.
Among the guests arriving to attend the marriage of Miss Katherine Schofield James and Estes Dudley, which is to take place this week, are Oliver W. Dudley, Jr., of New York, Freeman Higgins, of New York and Boston, and Mrs. Frank Nelson, of Birmingham, Ala., who will be guests of Col. and Mrs. O. W. Dudley.

Miss Adele Patterson, of New York and Mrs. Harwell James, of Sweet Briar College, will arrive tonight with a number of friends. They will be guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. Bruce James, Hugh Willeford, of Rocky Mount, N. C., will arrive tonight.

Returns From Baltimore.
Mrs. I. Rosenstock has returned from Baltimore, Md., after spending the past three weeks very delightfully with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Hess.

Miss Winkler Wins Degree.
Miss Marie Winkler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Winkler, has returned to her home in Danville after nearly three years spent in New York where she has been a resident student of Columbia University and where she recently was awarded her B. A. degree and it remains for her to complete and forward her thesis which work she will undertake here. Miss Winkler is a full graduate of the Danville High School and a graduate in music of Randolph-Macon Institute. She also won her diploma at Sweet Briar College following a full course of study at that junior college, and is among the more successful girl collegians from Danville.

An Evening of Music.
The Music Study Club accounts itself particularly fortunate and highly honored that their next regular program on Tuesday evening, February 26, will be a lecture-recital by Mrs. Edith Hatcher Harcum, head of the Harcum School of Music, at Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Mrs. Harcum is one of the most distinguished and successful women has gone out from Virginia. She is a daughter of the well known and beloved Dr. William E. Hatcher, of Richmond, and began her musical education in that city under the instruction of Frederick Hahn, himself a pupil of Liszt. From him she went to study with Richard Burmeister, also a pupil of Liszt. Later she studied with Wager-Swayne, and Philipp, in Paris. After her return to America she was accepted as one of six out of a large number of competitors for the artists' class of Wasmuth-Salomon, leader of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. Since that time she has studied in Vienna, the personal pupil of the world's greatest piano teacher, Theodore Leschetizky. The Harcum school she founded about seven years ago, preparatory for Vassar, Wellesley, Smith, Bryn Mawr. While not primarily a music school, it emphasizes both music and academics and treats music as an integral part of education.

Ossip Gabrilovitsky, whose daughter was a student at the Harcum school, speaks of his appreciation of Mrs. Harcum's excellent musicalship and unusual attainments as a Pedagogue. Mrs. Harcum is the head of the music department of her school, the superintendent of a number of teachers, and herself teaches piano and musical appreciation. She will speak to the Music Study Club on the "Contrast of the Classic, Romantic and Modern Schools of Music," illustrating at the piano with the following numbers:

I. a—Fugue D Major No. 5 ..... Bach
b—Sonata Op. 2 No. 1, first movement ..... Beethoven
c—Sonata Op. 27 No. 2 (Moonlight) first movement ..... Beethoven

II. a—Nocturne F Sharp, Op. 15 No. 2 ..... Chopin
b—Etude C Minor Op. 10 No. 12 (Revolutionary) ..... Chopin

III. a—Prelude A Minor ..... Debussy
b—Opus 19 ..... Schoenberg

IV. Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2 ..... Liszt

Last Dance of The Season.
Cards are out inviting all the dancers of the town and surrounding community to attend the dance which is to be given at the Masonic Temple Thursday night, February 28. Weidemyer promises to write his name in the hall of fame that night even if it costs a hold-up at the last hour. Every body will be there because it is the last dance before Lent which begins with Ash Wednesday, March 5. Dancing will begin at 8:30 p. m., and last until 2 p. m.

Daughters Meeting.
The "Whatsoever Circle of Kings' Daughters" will hold the February meeting Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. H. E. Watkins, West Main street.

Mr. Penn Plays in Greensboro.
Richard Penn, violinist, will play at Park Place M. E. Church, Greensboro, N. C., this morning.

Mr. Penn is one of Danville's most popular musicians and has played before large audiences in a number of Virginia and Carolina towns during the past winter. He began his study of music under Miss Marie L. S. Conner, Director of the Department of Music at Randolph-Macon Institute, and his services have been in demand by Danville audiences from the beginning because of his gift of reaching the hearts of his hearers.

The Musicians' Club.
One of the most interesting meetings of the new Musicians' Club during the present season, was held at the home of Mrs. Hughes Powell, on Virginia avenue, on last Monday evening. Mrs. Henry Langston, Miss Esther Rosentzger and Basil Browder contributed delightful vocal selections, while Misses Eleanor McCulloch, Hughes Powell and Julian Skinnell gave interesting piano numbers. Mrs. L. P. McCulloch read a brief biographical sketch of each composer represented in the evening's study. Samuel Sours acted as the accompanist and Richard Penn played a violin obligato for Mr. Browder's song. Mrs. Allen T. Rabe and Eugen Putnam had charge of the program. A large number of members attended the meeting.

Marriage Is Announced.
Announcement was made Saturday of the marriage in Lynchburg on January 5 of Denham W. Sams, Virginia Annie Mae Darlington. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Grubb, the bride and groom decided to make no immediate announcement of their wedding, the ceremony, being made yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Sams are making their home in Danville.

On Friday evening at their home, 403 Chestnut, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Christianson delightfully entertained a number of their friends informally. Dancing was indulged in for about two hours, while for those who did not care for this form of entertainment, tables were provided in an adjoining room for food. The social gathering came to a close shortly after 11 o'clock, after refreshments had been served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wood, Mrs. J. L. Williams, Miss Sallie Young, Miss Mary Harvey, Misses Maude and Maggie McBride, Pete Hubbard, Ouis Baines, Mr. Burton, Herman Williams, Miss Mabel Williams, Herman Atkinson, Misses Violet and Ruth Christianson, Carla Yeatts and Mr. Jones.

Personals.
—Ernest Marchand and Jim Hayes returned to their homes yesterday after spending a few days at General hospital for the removal of tonsils.
—Miss Thelma Jones and her schoolmate, Miss Frances Nash, of Waro, Texas, have returned to Sweet Briar College after spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. E. Ashby Jones.
—Billy Gibson has returned to University of Virginia after spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gibson, Virginia ave.
—Tucker Smith and Stuart Booker, of University of Virginia, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. I. C. Harrison yesterday.

On Monday evening, March 3, Averett College will present Miss Ruth Root, soprano, in recital. Besides several selections from operas, Miss Root's program will consist of art songs by classical and modern masters. Miss Gannon will be Miss Root's accompanist. Mr. Eugen Putnam, pianist and composer, will also participate in the program, playing a number of compositions, including works of Chopin, Mendelssohn, Debussy and Ravi. The public is cordially invited to attend.

PRINTED SILKS TO BE POPULAR THIS SPRING

Artist Tells How Development of These Goods Came About—Other Fashion Hints.

BY AILEEN LAMONT
(Copyright, 1934, by The Bee.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—French sales people, than whom there are none better, are telling the trans-Atlantic buyers at present that the development in the printed silks came about in this way. A young artist, they say, was working by a river bank in the country in 1920, looking at a wonderful model. In view of the subject of the picture, the model was lightly clad, having laid aside her dress, hat and cape. While both model and artist were intent on the painting, a tramp stole the articles of attire. The model, of a sensitive nature was desolated when she discovered her loss. How to reach the railroad station and her apartment? Her emotion, however, was of short duration, for the artist painted upon her skin the birds, leaves and flowers represented in her surroundings. While thus attired, the two met a famous silk manufacturer and a designer, who seized on the idea and launched the printed silk fashion. One of the chief American designers of printed silks who turns out materials every year as attractive as are made abroad, says the only inspiration outside his print blocks and dye pots he ever received was from a tattooed woman in a street car in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. But then the American materials are less expensive and the American salesmen are not so original. Nevertheless the printed silks are regarded as some of the trendiest popularity this spring and summer on both sides of the ocean.

The spring hats, by the way, remain of medium size. The cloche has not resigned its popularity but the crown has grown higher than during the winter and more odd trimmings are being used. Picot straw and Ransok are in favor while the capeline of crin is expected to make its appearance as the days grow warmer. Black continues its vogue, especially in New York, where it seems nine hats out of every ten are that color. Nevertheless, the warm yellows, the greens, the Havana browns, rosewood and golden beige have their advocates and lacquer red bids fair to outdistance some of the softer shades. Brims are rolled in every way, up and down in front and back and on the sides.

The real feature of the spring hats, however, are the scarfs which are attached to them, usually at the right side of the back, and which wind about the neck and shoulders. In one pretty cloche of black picot, this scarf takes the form of a long black ostrich plume which winds about the throat in the form of a feather boa. Another example is a black hankie trimmed on the right side with a spray of jonquils, blossoms down. The scarf with this is embroidered at the end, which is wide, with a similar spray. In still a third, blue taffeta trimming and scarf are embroidered with white daisies with yellow centers.

FASHION NOTES

SIMPLICITY RULES.
One sees less embroidery on the spring frocks than was used during the winter, and there is a general absence of trimming on even those frocks designed for the most elaborate occasions.

SLEEVE STYLES.
Sleeves are very tight and tailored, or very wide at the wrist, with a colorful lining showing.

SELF TRIMMING.
Self trimmings are preferred to almost any other type on the smartest gowns.

BUTTONED BLOUSE.
For the tailor, are the smartest of satin blouses that button from collar to waistline with tiny pearl buttons.

SILKWOOL SCARFS.
Gay scarfs of silk and wool are worn effectively with sport coats of suede.

WHITE SILK BRAID.
White silk braid trims sport skirts of imported broadcloth and very fine flannel.

LACE TRIMMING.
Cascades of lace, running from shoulderline to hemline, make an unusual trimming for a straight-line frock of black crepe de chine.

Miss James Honored.
Miss Harrell James, of this city, has been elected Quenn O' May by Sweet Briar College students amid the warm scenes of safety and jubilation, and she has appointed Miss Mary B. Wilson maid of honor, as the first step in the selection of a court which she will announce later. This is one of the greatest compliments paid by the student body to one of its members each year at Sweet Briar and the May Day celebration is annually attended by hundreds of visitors.

Introducing a Group

When a newcomer is introduced to a group of two or more women, it is not necessary for those seated to rise and shake hands. A polite bow is all that is necessary.

HELPFUL HINTS

STEEL WOOL.
Steel wool moistened with linseed oil will keep an iron sink smooth and clean.

PATENT LEATHER.
Scratches on patent leather shoes can be concealed if they are painted over with a mixture of olive oil and jet black ink.

CANE SEATS.
Cane chair seats may be tightened and cleaned by sponging with soap and water. After ten minutes rinse well with water containing a teaspoon of ammonia.

MOLASSES.
When you are measuring molasses dip the cup or spoon in boiling water just before you do so and the molasses will pour out more quickly.

BOILING CABBAGE.
Boil cabbage in an uncovered kettle in a kitchen where the window is up at the top and the bottom and you will not notice the odor.

RUBBER GLOVES.
You can mend your rubber gloves so that more service may be extracted from them with patches of adhesive tape.

MICA IN STOVE.
The mica in your stove may be cleaned without removing from the stove windows by washing with hot vinegar.

TABLE TERN.
Spray your table ferns occasionally, once a week is ample, with tepid water applied in a syringe that throws a fine mist.

BABY KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

(By The Associated Press.)
SALISBURY, N. C., Feb. 23.—The eleven months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Shandel was drowned and the parents and the child of a neighbor were injured last night about 10 o'clock when the car in which they were riding crashed through a bridge into Town Creek, several blocks from the city limits of Salisbury. All occupants of the car except the infant were rescued by heroic work of three negroes who were near when the car dived into the creek.

The Tangle

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM BEATRICE GRIMSHAW TO LESLIE PRESCOTT

Your letter, my dear Leslie, was full of the most astounding news. First, I was greatly surprised that Dick told you we had broken our engagement. You notice I say "we," for although I think the idea was put into words by me, I am sure the thought was in Dick's brain long before I voiced it.

I have come to the conclusion, dear, all of our traditions in regard to the sexes, their psychologies, their proclivities and their real place in life are wrong.

I had always believed a man kept his secrets, especially where it was a love secret, but here I find Dick talking over the breaking of our engagement with you quite calmly. Rather ridiculous— isn't it?

The more I see of men—and the more I hear about them—the nearer I come to thinking there is no particular difference between men and women. Men's animal qualities may be a little stronger, but in all human and psychological attributes they are the same.

What you say about Paula Perier is also most astounding. I remember her when I visited Albany some years ago. She was then thought to be extremely beautiful, but an extremely frivolous girl. Much was forgiven her because she had to earn her own living. Many of her sensational actions were excused because she was French.

I cannot imagine her anything like you describe as "a woman who has come out of the fiery furnace of suffering, refined and made better."

That's all right, my dear, as far as I know. If experience does not make us better it always makes us worse. There is no such thing as a character standing still, you know.

However, I'm afraid I would never have invited that woman to my house if I thought she had adopted "as the child she had abandoned."

I do not consider myself below the average woman in sympathy and understanding, Leslie, but honestly, never could have sympathized with Paula Perier, to ask her to take that child in her arms, knowing all the time she was its mother.

I guess I'm old-fashioned, Leslie, but I still have a kind of queer feeling when I meet—as one does often lately—a woman who through a great love or a great mistake has strayed from the strict path of virtue.

I sometimes wonder if that crown of glory has been lost entirely, that is always supposed to have been the alo surrounding the virtuous woman. Nowadays we seem to make no difference between her and her unchaste sister.

When I take away the feeling that a spotless reputation is nothing particularly to be desired, you take away the foundation of society.

Probably Dick and I would never have hit it off together, for his mood was entirely different from mine. I could not trust him. I should always feel he was probably keeping something in his mind very different from that which he was telling me.

I am glad, however, you saw him and told me all about it. It breaks another link of the chain between us.

Lovingly,
BEE.

A CLOSE-UP OF JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER

ORMOND BEACH, Fla., Feb. 25.—Here's an intimate close-up of John D. Rockefeller, Sr. It is made by Maj. Gen. Adelbert Ames, his daily golfing partner and one of his closest friends. Few other men have had the opportunity to get to know the multi-millionaire philanthropist as has this Civil War veteran. For the two have played their game here during the winter practically every day—but Sunday—for the past eight years.

"Mr. Rockefeller," says General Ames, "is a very amiable, very conscientious, and a very lovable man. He has a conscience. He goes to church and he carries out his religion in his life. He is the only man I have ever known another man like him. He is a very fine man to know and be with."

"He has a deep sense of humor and is very entertaining. Here's a story that he told me the other day: 'A young girl, in her first love affair, received her first kiss and, much perturbed, decided to confess the fact to her mother. The mother was much amused. 'Ah, only once,' she asked, raising an admonishing finger. The young girl was equal to the occasion. 'I came to confess, not to boast,' she replied.'"

The general chuckled and went on: "The other day Mr. Rockefeller said to me: 'Just think of those old fellows. He had in mind those that you see all stooped over at 60, with gray faces. Men who do not take care of themselves. He calls them old men, and we both think of them as old men. Yet both he and I are far older than 60.'"

General Ames is 83; Rockefeller 84. "Mr. Rockefeller plays a wonderful game for his age," says his companion, "and I think he is playing better this year than for the last few years past. He plays the first nine holes around 50 strokes."

Watching Mr. Rockefeller play, the writer saw him make four or five shots in the neighborhood of 150 yards. He addresses the ball very carefully with a long low drive that raises it about 30 feet above the ground in the last third of its flight.

"Gold," continued the general, "has been a wonderful thing for Mr. Rockefeller and it is marvelous in the way he has persisted in it. He has really fought his way back to health and many another man can do the same thing. Mr. Rockefeller holds himself very well. I am erect because I have had a military training. But Mr. Rockefeller holds himself just as well, as he has always been a civilian and has a civilian carriage. His shoulders are very broad and may give him the appearance of being stooped-shouldered. But his body is held straight."

"Perhaps Mr. Rockefeller realizes," it was suggested, "that people, of all kinds, think of him. They realize what he is trying to do to help humanity. 'I think he does sense a kinder spirit,' replied the general. 'Yet people envy wealthy men. You and I, speaking generally, envy the man who has more than we have. But great happiness is not found in wealth. Ninety-nine men struggle to live. The hundredth, the great genius, becomes wealthy. Yet he is not as happy as those who are obliged to struggle. Mr. Rockefeller finds happiness in giving.'"

The golf links here might almost be called a constellation of millionaires. Round about are Frank Hodley, of the Interborough in New York, F. W. Rice, Jr., president of the General Electric; Albert Dice, president of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway; Charles Elliott, secretary of the Westinghouse Electric Company. Paul Thompson, president of the Philadelphia Gas & Electric Company, a former president of the Pullman directors.

But the eyes of these men and of the ladies often drift to watch the slight man of military bearing, and a tall broad-shouldered man wearing a brown cap and coat and with neatly pressed trousers. It is General Ames and Mr. Rockefeller golfing.

"The old gentleman is playing great golf today," observes a spectator. "Aw, he's done give away more money than Henry Ford ever had," says a colored caddy.

But the two old cronies generally go their way, with a welcome for everyone.

GRISWOLD PROVES TO BE WIRE-TAPPER

(By the Associated Press.)
GULFPORT, Miss., Feb. 23.—Daniel E. Griswold, known here for two years as DeWitt A. Gray, man-about-town, arrested last week by a Florida sheriff who wanted him in that state to serve a six-year sentence for swindling, apparently did not confine his activities in Gulfport solely to dances, card parties and receptions, according to A. S. Hargrove, postal inspector, who announced today that he had discovered a full-fledged "wire-tapper's" headquarters to which inquiries were obtained by keys taken from Griswold.

The inspector stated that the "planted" occupied a suite of four rooms in an office building and that it was equipped with telegraph instruments and other apparatus for operation of a "bucketshop" and "turf exchange." Other keys taken from Griswold, the inspector stated, opened a strong box filled with "stage money."

Griswold was convicted and sentenced at Fort Pierce, St. Lucie County, Florida, several years ago, and disappeared while at liberty under bonds, pending an appeal. He was arrested here two years ago for the New Orleans police who wanted him for an alleged swindle in that city, but was released on account of a flaw in the procedure. City council later refused to grant extradition papers and Gray, as he was known, continued to live a life of ease.

DECLARE FREIGHT RATES NOT CAUSE HIGH LIVING COST

(By the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The railroads, through the bureau of railway economics maintained by them, issued a statement today designed to show that freight rates on farm products are not responsible for the fluctuations in the prices paid to producers in the prices paid to consumers.

The statement presented the results of a study of the prices paid to producers of wheat, corn, oats and live stock, and was a reply to the contention of Secretary Wallace that freight rates on farm products should be reduced to relieve the agricultural situation.

"The cost of living at present," said the statement, "is 72.1 per cent greater than in 1913. The average hourly wages of unionized workers increased 93 per cent between 1913 and 1922, and has increased from 5 to 10 per cent since 1922, so that union wages are now more than 100 per cent greater than in 1913. The hourly wages of railway employees have increased 133 per cent since 1915, while their annual earnings have increased 97 per cent."

"Freight rates generally are now 50 per cent above 1913. According to Secretary Wallace, freight rates on wheat from country shipping points to primary markets are 45 per cent above the pre-war rates. Railway taxes per mile are 160 per cent higher now than in 1913. Because the increase in freight rates since 1913 is smaller than the increase in cost of living and in wages, it is evident that the cost of transportation service considered as one factor of distribution, is lower relatively than the cost of other services involved between producer and consumer."

SHAPE OIL INDUSTRY MAY CLOSE

GLASGOW, Feb. 22.—The Scottish shale oil industry, employing 10,000 men, it is feared, will have to close down in a few months because it is no longer profitable. The situation is attributed to the large quantities of crude oil being obtained elsewhere.

DAILY PUZZLE

The words "Have a Fort Pecans" on the inside cover of the box seem to have nothing to do with its contents. Yet if the letters in those words are re-arranged properly to form two words, they will tell what the box contains. What is in the box?

Yesterday's answer:
If a fur coat were bought for $200 and sold for $250, the profit would be 20 per cent.

$50 is the profit, and many persons will give 25 per cent of the amount of profit, for $50 is 25 per cent of $200. But profit is properly figured on selling price; and $50 is 20 per cent of the selling price—$250.

BOWLEY GOES GUNNING FOR PUBLICATION

(By the Associated Press.)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Feb. 23.—Arraigning the American Legion Weekly for carrying material derogatory to officers of the Army, Brig. Gen. A. J. Bowley, commander of Fort Bragg, N. C., declared "they picture use as a bunch of idiots and strutting turkeys, and the higher the rank the harder the rap," in a speech before the all-southern American Legion meeting here tonight.

General Bowley took issue particularly with the article "what's wrong with the Army," which appeared in a recent issue of the Weekly.

The all southern conference which ended tonight, was attended by about 300 legionnaires from several southern states. National Commander John R. Quinn of the Legion addressed the conference today in supporting the soldiers' bonus.

Rheumatism Pains Are Now In Season

Says Glass of Salts Helps To Overcome Rheumatic Acid
Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly, keep the feet dry, avoid exposure, and above all, drink plenty of good water and avoid eating sweets of all kinds. Rheumatism is caused by body waste and acids resulting from food fermentation. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this poison from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this waste, and acids which keep accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain, called Rheumatism.

By CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Magnus Johnson's hot water pipes were frozen.

The Johnsons had been out all afternoon—the senator at the capitol, Mrs. Johnson visiting the suburban school her children attend. In their absence the fire went out.

The senator was considerably heated by the mishap, but the house was not. Mrs. Johnson took it philosophically, as one of the inevitable discomforts of city life. "Modern conveniences," she said scornfully.

Warm at 30 Below

"On the farm," she added, "we never had such troubles. We burn wood there—in a stove. I never used coal before."

"This climate isn't so bad, but we could, with a wood fire, in 20- and 30-degree below-zero weather."

Sensor Johnson answered the door in person. He looked rather doubtful at the request for an interview with his wife.

"Mrs. Johnson isn't a politician," he said. "She's been on the school board, but she's a farm woman. She doesn't understand politics. And the newspapers have said some things about us that were all wrong."

Firpo Knocks Out "Farmer" Lodge in Fifth Round

30,000 PERSONS SEE THEIR IDOL RETAIN HONORS

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)
FLENOR ALLEN, Feb. 25.—Luis Firpo was still the heavyweight champion of South America today, having disposed of Farmer Lodge, American heavyweight, by a knockout last night at the fifth round of the fight at the River Plate football stadium in Buenos Aires. The fight, which drew a crowd of 30,000, was a terrific battle, the Argentine took the offensive at the outset, forcing the Argentine to the ropes, but after his initial onslaught, the American never had a chance. Twice before the knocking out of the fight, the American was sent to the floor by the falling right which was his favorite blow. Lodge's punches lacked power and he clinched repeatedly. The referee was obliged to use force to pull him out of some of these embraces.
At the beginning of the fifth round, with Lodge puffed, Firpo tried for a knockout. Driving rights and lefts to the ribs and over the head, he forced the American about the ring. Once again he knocked Lodge down, but was up in an instant.
The knockout blow was a straight right which sank deeply into Lodge's body, doubling him up like a jack. The American crumpled to the floor and fell face downward lying motionless as he was counted out. Firpo weighed 215 pounds and Lodge 211.
High Gaillard, business representative of the South American heavyweight champion, declared Firpo under no circumstances would agree to place himself under the control of the Raymond Syndicate as a condition to matching him with Harry Wills is it proposed.
Gaillard said Firpo had too many chances for profitable engagements to limit his engagements in the United States before the time for the proposed Wills match.

FENGLER SETS NEW RECORDS ON SPEEDWAY

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 25.—With five world's records, $3,000 in prize money and 90 points toward the 1936 American Automobile Association championship, Harlan Fengler, "boy wonder" of board and buck speedways, is grooming himself and his mount for new conquests to follow his spectacular victory in the 250-mile classic at Beverly Hills yesterday.
Fengler tore off the 250 miles without a stop, leading into the lead in the first lap and staying there until he had finished in two hours, nine minutes and fourteen and three-fourths seconds. His average speed for the distance was 115 miles an hour, displacing the former record of 113.65 miles an hour made by Jimmy Murphy on the same track a year ago.
He also broke records as he went along. For fifty miles he set a new one 117.1 miles an hour. At the 100-mile post he set up another, 116.5 miles an hour. For 150 miles he established a new mark of 116.2 and for the 200-mile distance 116.2. Veterans of the roaring track fought bitterly for the second honors and finished in this order:
Jerry Wenderlich, Harry Hartz, Bennett Hill, Tommy Milton, Eddie Hearne, Jimmy Murphy, Earl Cooper, Joe Boyer, Cliff Durant and Phil Shafer.
The race was the last to be held on the Beverly Hills speedway. In a few weeks the structure will have been torn down and real estate men will be selling the resident lots over which Harlan Fengler yesterday made speedway history.

Drop Kick Saves Game

BY BILLY EVANS
In his days as a college star at the University of Alabama, Derrill Pratt, who has played with various American League clubs, won as much fame on the gridiron as diamond. During the off-season he has acted as football coach of recent date assisting at the University of Michigan.
During his "rah-rah" days, Pratt was noted for his kicking ability. Down south they still talk of his long-distance punts and remarkable field goals.
Football tactics, as a rule, do not mix with baseball, yet one of the most remarkable double plays I have ever seen pulled was the result of a drop kick on the part of Pratt.
Detroit was playing the Yankees at the Polo Grounds. With the bases filled and one down, Bobby Veach hit a grounder through the pitcher's box, which looked good for at least a single.
The Tigers were two runs behind at the time and it looked as if the score would surely be tied.
Pratt raced over after the ball. He never reached it with his hands, but in taking his last step the ball came into contact with his right foot. It arched directly into the hands of Roger Peckinpaugh, then playing short for the Yankees, who easily completed a double play, retiring the side.

DEMPSEY ANXIOUS TO TAKE CRACK AT SOME OF HIS TORMENTORS

By HARRY NEWMAN.
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Jack Dempsey, boss of the heavyweight boxing brigade, arrived in New York from Washington, enthusiastic over his interview with President Coolidge. Dempsey announced he is craving action and wants to take a smack at some of his tormentors soon and does not care a tinker's whoop who Jack Kearns gets for him.
Dempsey was in great mood and looking the picture of health. He told us he had a good time in the south and managed to take the bookies at New Orleans for a few shillings.
"I don't care who it is," said the champion when asked who he would fight next. "They can all have a fight. I am not going to last forever and I know I am going to be knocked off some day. However, while I am in the game I am going to try and get all I can out of it."
"What difference does it make? Tommy Gibbons, Firpo or Harry Wills—any one—I can beat them all."
"Gibbons is entitled to another chance," the champion continued. "Surely he stayed longer than the rest. I don't think I was the best

MANY RECORDS ARE SMASHED IN MEET

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Four new world indoor records were set and two equalled tonight in a spectacular track and field carnival held by the Wilco A. A. in the Thirteenth Regiment Armory.
A fourth world's record was established by Schuyler Enck, brilliant Penn State middle distance runner, who defeated Ray Watson, Chicago, national half mile champion, and Larry Brown, former Pennsylvania crack and 18 metre special. Enck beat Watson by five yards in a driving finish, with Brown second. The victor's time, 1:54 4-5, puts a new mark on the record books for the distance run for the first time indoors.
The world's record for the 80 yard high hurdles, which has stood on the record books for 37 years, was subjected to the severest attack, being broken twice and equalled once.
Charles R. Barker, a West Point cadet, set the new low standard of 10 2-5 seconds in the second preliminary heat after Tom Farrell, of Newark A. C., had topped the timbers for a new mark of 10 4-5 in the first heat. The soldier, however, lost by a yard in the final to Carl Christensen, of the Newark A. C., who equalled his rival's record time.
Jole Ray, Chicago distance runner, scored a brilliant triumph in capturing the 3,000 metre Olympic special, outstanding event of the track and field carnival, but failed in a valiant attempt to lower his own records for the distance. Ray broke the tape 43 yards in front of Verne Booth, of Johns Hopkins. Intercollegiate cross country champion, with Johnny Romig, of Penn State, third. Ray opened up a big gap between

SPORTS GOSSIP

Joe Kirkwood won the Texas open golf championship with the fine score of 279, finishing seven strokes ahead of his nearest competitor. The Australian, in one of his inspired moods, had two 68's. When this fellow is good, he's invincible.
While Detroit expects big things from Outfielder Manush this year, American League pitchers seem to think his batting can be slowed down considerably if he is properly pitched to. The consensus of the pitchers is that he doesn't like a fast ball on the inside, letter high.
Jack Wolfe, the bespectacled bantamweight of Cleveland, has decided to give the boxing game the festive go-by and will devote his future waking hours to the honorable and less bruising task of selling life insurance. "I only got $300 for beating Young Montreal the other night, boy!" Wolfe demands to know.
Manager Dave Bancroft of the Boston Braves is pumping into trouble weeks before the opening of the season. In the death of Tony Boeckel he loses one of the most valuable players on the team.
Chick Evans, noted Chicago golfer, who suffered serious financial setbacks last year, is said to be coming back splendidly. Evans is doing doubletime work as broker and writer. His golf articles are nationally distributed.
The prediction is made in golf circles that George Von Elm of Salt Lake City will be a tough man to beat in the national amateur next summer. Von Elm has arrived at the top of his game, and his is a game that ranks with the best.
ALL STARS FAIL TO LIVE UP TO NAME
The Danville High School overhauled the Reidsville All-Star basketball team last night at Municipal Hall to the tune of 43 to 11. The All-Stars were never in the running, Danville leading 23 to 0 at the end of the first half. The local second team was in tower ditch end of the game, and Reynolds, of the substitutes, getting in some good work. Farley, of the locals, with 16 points to his credit was the leading scorer. Line-up: Danville: Fox. Reidsville: Farley. Forward: Chance. Ruffin. Forward: Glasgow. Ray. Forward: Sprinker. Luff. Center: Gillicar. Franklin. Guard: Link. Taylor. Guard.

SMITH AND GARDNER NEXT ATTRACTION

Promoter Moody states that on Thursday night of this week he has booked for the usual weekly wrestling attraction at Municipal Hall Zeke Smith and Pinkie Gardner. Smith will come here with confidence oozing from every pore as a result of his triumph of last Thursday evening's affair and Pinkie feels that he himself is just about as good as Zeke or any other wrestler in his class, so a blood and thunder program is expected when the two meet. This is the first time the two grapplers have ever met here although Gardner, one of the cleverest men in the mat game, has appeared here before and is a familiar figure to wrestling followers while Smith, comparatively a new comer to the local arena, has proven himself a first class wrestler and worthy of the attention of the best in the business.
A letter from John Kilonis has been received by Moody saying that he will be back in the east and south the coming week and will be open for engagements. He declares he is ready and willing to meet any and all comers regardless of how rough they may be and the local promoter is anticipating putting on a match between Kilonis and his arch enemy, Joe Shimkus, next week. If these two meet the fur will fly for neither loves the other with any lasting affection and make no pretense at friendly relations. The immediate future promises some first class entertainment for mat fans.

Garrison Cigars Leads On 2nd Day

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)
CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Garrison Cigars led at the close of the second day of rolling in the twenty-fourth annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress last night with a total of 2,772. The second five man team on the list was Crescent Belmont with 2,661 while the North Center Millmen were third with 2,461. The next seven, Lincoln Tens, 2,649; Spessmints 2,645; Hennepin Council, 2,619; Court Chicago, No. 2, 2,604; Pins 2,597; Carroll Council 2,587; Bismarck (tenpin), 2,587. Coubines and Soudie bowling will be started later in the week.

Boxing Takes On New Life In N. Y.

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Plans for the 1934 heavyweight boxing program are expected to take definite shape next week as a result of the arrival in New York today of Jack Dempsey, the titleholder, accompanied by his manager, Jack Kearns.
Kearns said tonight he expected to resume early next week conferences with Tex Rickard on the prospective match with Tommy Gibbons who already has accepted the promoters' terms for a match here early in June.
Kearns also is expected to discuss details of a return match with the titleholder with the winner of the prospective Firpo-Wills contest, which may take place in July.
Providing Dempsey succeeds in disposing of Gibbons, the second match would take place in September.
It is stated, however, the Firpo-Wills encounter probably will not be promoted by the New York syndicate headed by Louis Raymond. Raymond had obtained tentative agreement of both fighters to terms involving a $200,000 dollar purse, but the syndicate withdrew as a result of a refusal of Firpo to accept the plan of a second fight in place of the first.
Billy McCarney, Firpo's business representative, said tonight he would accept a $100,000 purse and would fight in the Madison Square Garden unless he is unable to obtain the necessary $100,000 in the present situation.
McCarney declared he would not fight in the Madison Square Garden unless he is unable to obtain the necessary $100,000 in the present situation.
LOS ANGELES GETS MYERS.
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 25.—The Los Angeles Times reported today that the city has secured the services of Vernon Booth, a former champion of the Olympic games, to be the main attraction in the city's new arena, the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, which is to be opened in 1936.

UNIVERSITY WON

(By The Associated Press)
LYNCHBURG, Va., Feb. 23.—University of Virginia defeated Washington and Lee 42 to 29 at basketball here tonight, thereby laying claim to the state collegiate championship. Virginia took the lead early in the second quarter and was never headed.

AT THE MAJESTIC

Geo. E. Wintz's Spectacular Production, "Venus", Tuesday, Matinee and Night.
Venus has come into her own. The goddess of love and beauty can look down from her celestial eminence atop Mt. Olympus and behold her memory perpetuated and rejuvenated in American theatricals. Geo. E. Wintz has named his newest exposition of glitchoff—"Venus". No title could be more appropos, since of all the colorful United States extravaganzas, the Wintz attractions are famed for the corners of the land alike for the comeliness of their figures and the liberality with which their charms are freed from the confines of conventionality.

Venus of the Romans is a counterpart of Aphrodite of the Greeks. Legend has it that she sprang into life from the foam of the sea. She was worshipped by the ancients as the patroness of love, beauty and fecundity. Festivals of unrestrained revelry were staged in her honor.

From the dawn of time artists, sculptors and writers have made Venus the object of their efforts. Praxiteles was one of the first to commit his conception of the goddess to marble in the Venus of Capri. The marble in the Venus of the Louvre, Paris, is perhaps the most famous of her statues, while Venus of Medici in the Uffizi gallery, Florence, is nearly as well known.

Shakespeare contributed his mite to the lady's fame and also called forth the indignations of the censorship board with his Venus and Adonis. William Adolphe Bouguereau, who painted "Birth of Venus" now hanging in the Luxembourg gallery, has the honor of presenting the most beautiful of all countless works in oil and water color.

But, say those who have seen the Wintz "Venus", to be seen at the Majestic theatre on Tuesday, matinee and night, none of the inimitable in marble or on canvas can compare in sheer loveliness to the Venus of Kyrie Brown and her entourage of twenty-four comely hand maidens. Prices, matinee, 50 cents to $1.50; night, 50 cent to $2.00, plus tax.

FRANCE SELECTS OLYMPIC BOXERS

(By The Associated Press.)
PARIS, Feb. 23.—The Olympic boxing team to represent France next July selected after elimination trials in which 624 amateur boxers participated, follows:

Bellhouse, flyweight, Lemouton, bantamweight, Depont, featherweight, Savignac, lightweight, Doreau, welterweight, Broutaud, middleweight, Peguignan, light heavyweight, and Fouquet, heavyweight. The final elimination bouts took place last night and the men defeated will compose French team number two.

Team number one is matched to meet the Dutch amateur champions on March 7, and the Belgians on March 23. Arrangements are underway to meet the British team in April.

Shakespeare contributed his mite to the lady's fame and also called forth the indignations of the censorship board with his Venus and Adonis. William Adolphe Bouguereau, who painted "Birth of Venus" now hanging in the Luxembourg gallery, has the honor of presenting the most beautiful of all countless works in oil and water color.

BYRNES WILL RUN FOR SENATE

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Representative James F. Byrnes, announced today that he would be a candidate in the forthcoming South Carolina primary for the Democratic nomination for United States senator. He will seek election to the seat now held by Senator Dial, also a Democrat, who has declared he will be a candidate for reelection.

The South Carolina representative is serving his seventh consecutive term as a member of the House. He is a member of the appropriations committee, said a ranking Democrat on the subcommittee which drafts the annual supply bill.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—Sammy Bohne, Cincinnati Reds' second baseman, who began his baseball career on San Francisco's sandlots when he was Sammy Cohen, wants the name of Bohne, conferred upon him by legal edict. An application was filed in Superior Court here yesterday requesting permission for the change in name. Sammy's mail is going astray because "Sammy Cohen," the name some of his old friends use in addressing him, is unknown around baseball headquarters, the decision states. Cohen changed his name to Bohne when he began playing in the Pacific Coast League.

NEW YORK COTTON.

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Conflicting influences were indirectly at work in the cotton market during today's early trading. The opening was steady at a decline of five points to an advance of 16 points. March was under considerable pressure of liquidation in preparation for possible notices tomorrow and this had an unsettling effect on the general list although some of the March sellers were rebuying in later months and there was considerable buying of new crop position on reports of unfavorable weather in the south.

The market was also impressed by the increased spot sales reported in Liverpool, partly for export, and better advices from Manchester. After selling up from 30 1/2 to 30 4/5 for May or about 33 points net higher prices eased off several points from the best showing to continued near month liquidation and was rather unsettled during the first hour.

STOCK LETTER.

(Courtesy Thomson and McKinnon.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Nothing that has transpired since the close of the market last week changing conditions or the outlook. A good many regard the recent political developments as merely an ordinary incident without any permanent effect on the market. I can't regard it in that light and I cannot find any facts on which to base the more optimistic views that prevailed at the close of the week with regard to taxation. It is probably of the "wish being father to the thought." I also would like to see a change that would improve the prospects of passing a favorable tax bill but there are no facts on which to base such a hope. At best the whole situation is uncertain and therefore it is advisable to take the benefit of the doubt and I would rather sell stocks on the bulge.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)
NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25.—The cotton market opened with a good upward trend due to higher Liverpool cables than duo and spot sales there of 14,000 bales, of which 12,500 were American. First trades showed gains of 17 to 25 points compared with the previous close. New York, not improving as much as the local market, prices sagged slightly after the opening, but soon rallied on reports of snow in West Texas and a storm warning for the Texas coast. Notices for 4,000 bales for March delivery were reported issued here early and were said to have been stopped. Market was quieted down some.

How About Mind?

He was always kicking. One day his wife took him to a restaurant and he immediately proceeded to embarrass her by washing the silver. It was clean, as she assured him, but he washed knife, fork and spoon in his glass of water.

"No Germ for me," he announced loudly.
A minute later he drank the water. "Tit-Bits (London.)"

The REFEREE

BY ALBERT APPLE.

FOREVER

Mary Pickford says she wishes Edison could find a way to make "Mary and Doug" live forever. They will live forever, of course, like all the rest of us, but not here on earth. After 100 years at most, Mary would change her mind. Life becomes rather tiresome as we near the end of it all. Most old people are ready to pass on, after 90. The world's stage and life is a steady repetition of the same old show. Death intervenes, kindly, and takes us on to what?

THIEVES

A Buffalo man was sentenced to four years in prison for stealing a package of cookies and several pens from a grocery store. He admitted guilt but gave as his excuse the fact that his four children were hungry. He had eight previous convictions, and the sentence was stiff, probably because he was a chronic offender. But we can't help wondering what would have happened to him if he had been mixed up in a mess like Teapot Dome instead of stealing less than a dollar's worth.

LOST

A common fault in business organization is giving too much attention to getting new business and not enough attention to holding the old customers.

That's why many a concern, which imagines it is doing business, is really standing still. Similarly, many an individual is so interested in trying to get the job of the fellow on the next ladder rung above him that he forgets the chap below who is after his scalp. If the present job is handled well, the future will take care of itself automatically.

COURT UPHOLDS PADDLE IN SCHOOLS ON UNRULY PUPILS

By WALTER MARTIN

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)
ST. LOUIS, Feb. 25.—The wooden paddle has been recognized by the courts of Louisiana as a legal means of inflicting punishment on unruly school children, in the case of Miss Woodward, principal of a local school who was free today after a trial in district on a charge of assault in connection with the whipping of a six year old school boy. On the witness stand, Miss Woodward admitted chastizing the child with a small paddle, but claimed she was within her rights in enforcing the rules of the school. Judge P. Mills upheld the principal's claim, and found her not guilty.

Miss Woodward's vindication came as a climax of events which have agitated the whole city for the last week following her arrest. She was sworn out by Mrs. C. L. Tamplin, mother of Willie Roy Tamplin, the recipient of the "padding."

Miss Woodward, a member of a prominent family, is a veteran of thirty years in school work and her arrest has been the subject of discourse by local ministers and the press, as well as the chief topic of conversation in social circles.

Testimony at the trial was conflicting, several witnesses claiming the principal hit the child "pretty hard," while the principal's fellow teachers testified the child was unruly and the chastisement was not excessive. The principal claimed bruises laid to the paddling were suffered when the child fell down a flight of steps as he sought to escape after she had begun using the paddle on him for playing on the school grounds after hours.

An interesting angle was added by the fact a number of youths sent by Mrs. Woodward a warning to leave town at once, signing the note "K. K."

NEW YORK STOCKS.

(Associated Press Licensed Wire)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Considerable irregularity developed at the opening of today's stock market with the main price trend apparently downward. Coppers were again heavy. Selling pressure also was evident against such issues as Royal Dutch, Bethlehem Steel and Studebaker, all of which yielded fractionally on initial sales. South Porto Rican Sugar advanced a point. Price movements were very narrow and irregular in the early trading. Standard Industrial shares as a rule showed only nominal changes, although Baldwin, after opening unchanged, dropped 3-4 and Studebaker extended its loss to 1-7-8. Central Leather Common dropped 1-1-4 and the pfd. 1. Baltimore and Ohio pfd. and Seaboard Air Line pfd. each yielded 1-4 but Pere Marquette advanced a point. Foreign exchange opened firm.

He Was Right:

Little Jimmy, aged 2 years and 3 months, climbed on a chair and after a breathless moment of balancing, just escaped a fall.

Seeing this, his mother reproached him tenderly.

"Aha, Jimmy, ah!" she exclaimed.

"Who just had a scare the sheriff's dog escaped a fall?" replied Jimmy coldly.

"L'Echo de Paris."

ROME GOES BATHLESS

(By the Associated Press.)
ROME, Feb. 22.—The people of Rome for several days past have been suffering from bathless days, and relief seems in sight for the first time until Wednesday, when a broken water-main, which caused the trouble, is repaired.

Premier Mussolini is among those who has been compelled to go without his bath. Hundreds of American visitors have had to forego their showers while it is estimated that three-fourths of the Republicans in Rome have gone for the past few days without even washing their faces.

Clarence Sanders formerly president of "Mop" City, Kentucky petitioned for a writ of habeas corpus at $2,344,670 and a libel suit at $1,976,910.
